The Pontifical Irish College Lay Formation Programme

The Pontifical Irish College Lay Formation Programme offers a transformative year of academic, spiritual, pastoral and human formation for young adults aged approximately 20 - 30. Participants live in community at the Pontifical Irish College while studying at one of Rome's pontifical universities and engaging with the rich spiritual and cultural life of the Eternal City.

Applications are now open for our September 2027 intake. As places are limited, we encourage interested young adults to make contact as early as possible.
