Dear Parishioner and Gentle Reader,

Today we begin the celebrations of Holy Week with an unfolding story of anguish, betrayal, crucifixion, and death. On this Passion Sunday and in our liturgies of the coming week we will recall the last difficult days of Jesus, who was rejected, mocked and abandoned. Holy Week will bring us to Calvary, the place of brutality, where criminals were put to death, suspended on beams of wood and left to die. In his retelling of the passion story, St Luke goes out of his way to stress that Jesus was an innocent man as proclaimed by the centurion, “This was a great and good man”.

Holy Week affords us an opportunity to enter into this extraordinary event in the company of the poor, the broken hearted and those who live on the edges of society. We should think of all the suffering people we know and people we will never meet. We remember in a particular way all who are victims of war in Ukraine - we think of mothers and children fleeing their homes and all refugees driven from their homeland. We call to mind the mother from Zimbabwe who features on this year’s Trocaire box, and we imagine countless families living in abject poverty. All of these are walking their own “via dolorosa” or way of suffering with Christ. May we walk in solidarity with them.

St Luke’s account of the last journey of Jesus reminds us that our greatest triumph lies in how we relate to others, regardless of how they relate to us. We may have little control over the way other people treat us or regard us, but we have some control over how we react. If we respond like Jesus, then we share in his triumph. When we retain our dignity and our patience in the face of opposition or disturbance, then the triumph of Jesus takes flesh in our lives. The story of Jesus becomes our story and the love of God which he revealed most powerfully as he died on the cross, is also revealed in us.

May you have a blessed Holy Week. Monsignor Colum.

2022 /2023 Envelopes and Parish Finances

A word of appreciation and thanks to those people who helped distribute the new boxes of envelopes throughout the parish. It goes without saying that apart from the devastating effects of Covid and the impact of the war in Ukraine, many people are struggling with a wide range of financial challenges. All the more reason why I want to thank sincerely those parishioners who continue to support the parish by returning their envelopes, and in many cases backdating their contributions. I also compliment the growing number of parishioners who have opted to pay by standing order or direct debit.

It is understandable that the parish income for the past two years has been severely affected, especially during times of 'lock down' when people were not able to attend Mass. Unfortunately, there was no reprieve for service utilities like water, oil, electricity and insurance along with other sundry parish expenses. Therefore, I am gently suggesting, if you can, to complete outstanding envelopes and return them in the coming weeks. I would also encourage parishioners to consider the advantages of online giving and I would remind everyone of the enormous benefit to the parish of signing up for GIFT aid. The relevant forms are available from the parish office.

Once again, I want to thank everyone who contributes in any way to the upkeep of the parish, especially in these challenging times. It is my prayer that "the Lord who sees all that is done in secret" will reward you abundantly.

Sunday Missal

Important Dates for 2022

Providing there are no Covid restrictions, it is hoped to celebrate First Holy Communion on Saturday 14th May and Confirmation on Saturday 11th June.

Covid-19

While the Executive has decided to ease the restriction of face coverings in places of worship, Church leaders are encouraging people to continue to use them as a precautionary measure against the spread of infection.
