The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary Saturday 15th August

The Assumption of Mary honours the fullness of blessedness that was her destiny, the glorification of her immaculate soul and virginal body that completely conformed her to the risen Christ.

"This is a celebration that offers to the Church and to all humanity an exemplar and a consoling message, teaching us the fulfilment of our highest hopes. Their own future glorification is happily in store for all those whom Christ has made his own brothers and sisters by taking on their flesh and blood". (Marialis Cultus)

*A vigil Mass will be celebrated at Clogherney Mass Rock (weather permitting) on this Friday 14th August at 7.30 pm.

In the event of inclement weather, Mass will be celebrated in the Church of the Immaculate Conception.

The Mass Rock

In Clogherney Glen the evening is falling,
The mountains and valleys look murmuring on;
And deep in my heart an echo is calling me back to those sad days now faded and gone.

The Altar is decked and the candles are burning,
And over the pathways the people all throng,
Because our Great Lord today is returning to that dear old spot in Clogherney Glen.

Just think that our forefathers, undaunted and free,
Now peacefully look down on Clogherney Glen.
Hear their 'cead mile failte' with fervour and glee,
While, this day, young and old their memory acclaim.

The Host has been raised and the Mass is now ending,
The priests and the people are parting in peace.
And many a prayer is to Heaven ascending,
That the scourge of war among us may cease.

The beautiful prayers are echoing far,
And the people are sighing a heartfelt 'Amen'.
That all may be well when on some kind tomorrow,
We'll all meet again in Clogherney Glen.
